

Comic Craft: Problem-Solution Fit Matrix

The Dynamic Conflict & The Resolution Arc

Every great story needs a perfect counter to its core conflict. In the Comic Craft framework, we map your user's structural pain points directly to feature resolutions.

Panel 1: The Inciting Conflict (The Villain's Threat)

- User Pain Point: Fragmented user workflows and high administrative overhead.
- The Hero's Shield: Automated data aggregation panels that minimize manual inputs.

Panel 2: The Core Struggle (The Battleground)

- User Pain Point: Inaccurate time-tracking causing loss of revenue.
- The Hero's Strategy: Smart background context counters that preserve structural integrity of logs.

Validation Checklist (The Editorial Review)

1. Does the proposed feature directly disarm the specific pain point? (Verified)
2. Is the solution frictionless enough to maintain user engagement? (Verified)
